

MUCH HITTING BY GIANTS

Knocked Amole Out of Box in First Inning.

MADE FOURTEEN HITS.

Plattsburg Knocked Smith Out Also, but
Morey Held Them—Score 10 to 5
—Burlington and Rutland Tied.

In a game full of hitting on both sides Barre-Montpelier defeated Plattsburg Saturday afternoon at the Inter-city Park by a score of 10 to 5. Two pitchers were knocked out of the box and there was loose playing at times, particularly on the part of the home team. The old leaguer, Doc Amole, started in to pitch for the New Yorkers, but when he had been pounded for a double and two singles, netting two runs, Dick Cosgrave came rushing in from center field and put Barberick in his place. Barberick, however, had not got warmed up enough to stem the tide and the Inter-city's new fielder rapped out a homer over the center field fence, scoring three more runs, and making five tallies in the first inning for the home team to start on.

Smith went into the box for the Inter-city, but after seven hits had been made off him, and the score tied, Morey, who pitched against Plattsburg Friday, replaced him in the fifth and pitched a good game, allowing but three hits, and shutting the visitors out for the remainder of the game. Reidy, the Inter-city's new fielder, did star work with the stick. His homer in the first brought in three runs and his single in the fifth two more, making half of the Inter-city's runs. Stankard also did remarkable work with the bat, getting four singles in five times up.

After the home team had piled up five points in the first inning it looked like a snap and the crowd was wondering how many more they would pile up before the game was over. In the second inning, however, Plattsburg began to light on Smith and tallied twice. In the third they tied the score with three more runs and things began to look different, though with Morey's steady pitching and the team touching up Barberick for three hits in each of the fifth and sixth innings and bringing in four runs it was an easy victory.

The runs were made in this manner. In the last half of the first inning Dorman was up first and went out on a peculiar play. Amole threw one of his wild ones at him. Dorman jumped out of the way and the ball hit his bat behind him and rolled in towards the pitcher, who fielded it to first and the umpire called him out. Uniac got a free pass and scored on Apperious' two bagger to left field. Stankard singled, putting Apperious on third. Eaton singled, scoring Apperious.

At this point Barberick went into the box, and about the first ball he threw Reidy put over the fence and trotted around the bases with Eaton and Stankard ahead of him. Shaugnessy went out short to first. Ashmore singled and Smith closed the inning by flying out to Skelly.

In the second Plattsburg singled four times and got two runs. Cosgrave went out second to first. Kretschell singled, and on Wells' safe one got to second and also third on Apperious' error in letting the ball bound through his hands. Barberick sent a hot liner just high enough over Dorman's head so that he could not hold it, and Kretschell and Wells scored. Previous to Barberick Cooper singled and was put out trying to steal second. Cote got first on a fielder's choice and Kuhn was safe on first on Stankard's error of his grounder. Skelly bunted to the pitcher, who threw Barberick out at the plate.

In the third Wells singled for Plattsburg and went to third on Eaton's wild throw of Cooper's hunt. Barberick fanned. Cote drove a long single to Shaugnessy and Wells and Cooper scored. Kuhn was out on a hunt to first. Skelly got first on another error by Stankard and stole second. Cote scoring on the error. Bottenus struck out. For the Giants in the fifth Apperious singled, and Stankard followed suit. Eaton advanced then one base on his hunt to first, and Reidy's timely single to center field brought them home. Shaugnessy flied out, and Ashmore fanned.

In the sixth Morey was up first and walked. Dorman went out pitcher to first and Uniac rapped out a pretty single, putting Morey on third. Apperious bunted a slow one to the third baseman who got it in time but turned to look at Morey and Apperious beat out his throw. Stankard then sent out his fourth single, scoring Morey. Eaton went out on a fly to first and Reidy was down second to first.

The last run of the home team came in the eighth. Dorman drew a pass and stole second. Uniac came in for a two sacker and scored Dorman. Apperious flied out to Skelly and Stankard went out pitcher to first. Eaton rapped out the Inter-city's fourteenth hit, and stole second, where he died on Reidy's going out second to first.

PLAYED FAST BALL. Neither Rutland nor Burlington Scored in 11 Innings.

Rutland, August 14.—Rutland and Burlington played 11 innings of the fastest kind of ball here Saturday, neither side being able to score. Wiggs for the visitors struck out 12 men and allowed only four hits. Ferry, Rutland's new pitcher, made a good showing, the eight hits made by the visitors being widely scattered. Not a Rutland man saw third base, while the visitors had that base filled twice. McDonnell was caught at the plate in the fifth, Carroll's throw from left being one of the features of the game. NOTES OF THE GAME.

He was A mole, sure.
We have got a good lead, now let's keep it.

It was the kind of hitting that you like to see.
Fourteen hits, with a total of nineteen bases, is batting some.

Reidy is a clean ball player, and he made good all right. His hitting ability is just what we want.

Eaton kept his glove covered with dirt to withstand Smith's spit ball, and there was a miniature sand storm every time the ball struck the mitt.

Reidy's throw from right field to third was one of the prettiest plays made on the grounds. He would have had the runner if Dorman had held the ball.

STILL GOLF CHAMPION.

H. C. Egan Defeated D. E. Sawyer Saturday, Six Up.

Chicago, August 14.—H. C. Chandler Egan successfully defended his title of national golf champion in the 11th annual tournament at the Chicago golf links at Wheaton Saturday, defeating D. E. Sawyer of Wheaton by six up and five to play in the final.

Sawyer often was brilliant in his play against the champion, but he was weak at critical times on the putting green. Egan was steady at all times with his iron club, often getting discouraging lies by his terrific tee shots in the morning round. In the afternoon he avoided some of this trouble by using a cleft at the narrow places in the course.

Egan practically won the match on the putting green. He invariably was down in the regulations two putts when he got to the green. Sawyer missed several opportunities to get holes simply by failing on putts.

The Texas players won an easy victory, the sets standing 6-0, 6-1, 6-3.

In the match for the championship of Vermont in the singles, Semp Russ, the Gulf state champion, won rather easily against R. L. James of Saratoga, winner of the cup last year. Russ was much the steeper player. The match was witnessed by several hundred. Russ won 6-1, 6-0, 6-2.

Man Blown Into the Air by a Geyser of Steam—Several Injured.

New York, August 14.—John Hartigan, a laborer, was blown into the air with a geyser of steam which rose five stories high from an exploding steam pipe 10 feet below the pavement of Vesey street Saturday. Hartigan died two hours later from his injuries and scalds. Other workmen were severely burned and the lives of passers-by were endangered. Hartigan was the only man at the bottom of the pit when the pipe burst. Along with the debris which rose with the first jet of steam and rained down over the street Hartigan's form was plainly seen. He was blown completely out of the hole and was deposited against a hydrant with an impact that broke his right leg. The steam geyser spouted for several minutes before the supply valve was closed.

CHLOROFORMED THE FAMILY

Bold Robbery at Swanton
Saturday Morning.

GOT MONEY AND WATCH.

A. B. Neff's Family Did Not Wake
as Soon as Usual Saturday Morn-and Discovered the Robbery.

Swanton, Aug. 14.—One of the most daring robberies that has taken place in Swanton for years occurred Friday night at the home of A. B. Neff, who lives in the upper portion of a double tenement house on Canada street. The robbers reached an upper story window by means of a ladder, and cutting the screen open with a jack-knife, forced up the window and entered the main sleeping room at the very front of the house. There were evidently several persons connected with the robbery as footprints of different sizes were numerous in the sand.

The robbers secured a ladder at the rear of the house and placed the foot of it on the side-walk in front. It is believed they administered chloroform to every one in the house, as no one awoke as early as usual. Mrs. Neff is not a sound sleeper, but the only thing she heard Friday night was her little girl, about four years old say "Mamma, I don't like that man." Mrs. Neff, thinking the little girl was dreaming, paid no attention to her and went to sleep. Some one was evidently in the room when this occurred. The robbers went through the bureau and clothing, securing $32 from the pockets of Mr. Neff and going to another room took a valuable gold watch from a Mr. McNally, who is visiting there. They found in a small writing desk in the room.

The family usually awakes about 4 o'clock, but Mr. Neff was the first to awake Saturday morning after 5. He thought it peculiar that he was so late, and tried to awaken his wife, but could not do so. At this he became alarmed, and aroused the rest of the family with some difficulty. After working over Mrs. Neff for more than two hours, she was revived.

The deed was probably committed by some one familiar with the house and aware of the fact that it contained money. No clue to the robbers has been discovered as yet and the family suspects no one.

Was Hot in Burlington.

Burlington, August 14.—Saturday ranked with the hottest day of the year; the mercury reached 82, with great humidity.
